People are still bemoaning Red House. We believe that the play which is to be given in the school building in May is going to be worth coming to

Democratic Mass Meeting At Appomattox Court House, Virginia, on Saturday, May 8th, 1920, at 3 p. m.

Pursuant to the action of the Democratic Committee, at a meeting held at Appomattox, on Friday, the 10th day of April, 1920, I hereby call the Democrats of Appomattox County, together in a Mass Meeting at the Court House on Saturday, May 8th, 1920, at 3 p. m., for the purpose of electing Delegates to represent Appomattox in the Democratic State Convention, which meets in Roanoke, May 19th, 1920. Appomattox is entitled to seven Delegates.

All Democrats of the county of Appomattox are cordially invited and urged to attend and participate in this meeting.
L. F. FERGUSON, Chairman,
C. W. Smith, Secy. of the Com.
Buckingham.

The petition required by law asking Congressman Flood to become a candidate to represent himself was being numerously signed at Dilwyn Saturday.
Sheriff Shadley was circulating and the entire district is to be congratulated in having such an able representative.

Miss Louise Boatwright celebrated the seventh anniversary of her birthday on Saturday.

Professors Grossone and a Brown motored to Charlot-ville on Friday to meet Mr.
T. C. Eason, supervisor of agricultural schools, and the school rally that was to have been held here was postponed to April 30.

Teachers are again reminded that the Public School examinations are to be held here on April 30th and May 1st, 1920.

Road superintendent, L. T.
Tappott, was on Dilwyn market Saturday to buy hay to feed the county horses, and he found hay selling at $2.50 per hundred. Irish potatoes sell at $12 per sack of 24 bushels and sweet potatoes plentiful at $3.20 to $3.60 per bushel.

The trade in railroad ties is unabated and the two rail companies buying at Dilwyn are still engaged in getting other men to begin cutting corn planting and every other farm work in the mud such as what was once called "the mighty dollar." I heard a man say he got $47 for what he took to market Saturday, and teams were lined up to 25 wagons in a long stay to have their loads inspected and taken up.

Infanta still holds many victims within its gates. In taking the school census I went to one house where the man and his wife were both in bed.
Rev. Mr. Stinson continued his meeting at Trinity church up to Thursday night, and he proposes to resume services beginning on Friday night.

On last Friday evening there was an enjoyable entertainment at the High school here.
There was an Elocutionist here from Richmond, and another attraction was singing by Mrs.
G. Morris and Miss Esther Stinson, but the cutest feature of the whole entertainment was a song by little Miss Louise Morris.

Dr. G. Morris was a visitor in Baltimore the past week.

Mr. John G. Glover has been making a house to house canvas in Maysville district ansassing lands.

A man who has a new car and a fine hound dog, the property of Mr. J. J. Sprenger on Saturday, kind of the dog.

That is a beautiful young mare Mr. P. P. Glover is offering for sale.

Mr. W. H. Landes, Staunton, Va., Census Supervisor, is anxious that no one be left out on the census. If the enumerators failed to get you, write Mr.
Landes and he will have you counted.

As a rule when a man manages to sell himself at his own valuation there is a great good catch that there is a good man in the community.

Red House.

We believe that the play which is to be given

see for we have talent here among our people, just wait and see.

The service at Providence last Sabbath was good. If all his people could help to hold up the hands of the faithful young pastor, what a revolution there would be.

The young people in our community have forgotten that the year is growing old—for they need and have such a good time every week. Why not go to the church?

This is to ask where are our dear friends, Mr. and Mrs. R.

W. Paulette, will our correspondents please tell us about everybody?

Uncle Josh is working on his air raid yet. I work by his hand, and he is so busy. He said "I am going to be one good thing when I git it done. I been thinkin if its like I always hear tell it is up in moon, dat I'll jes leave Paye up for a while.

Iaint gone yit do. I know hits hard to git dis thing to start, but when she do start dat she do."

Paye said "Do fu' whipperill hollered last Wednesday night, she heard it.
